

QUIZ No 19

FIND THE RIVERS

At a market (inside if wet) I came late and underwent a running battle to get a wearable item, but I was quite ignored for well over ten minutes. I pottered on a 'Cook's Tour' over and over, darting to and from meeting with no success. My late start ensured that I missed out on the blouses I'd wanted and, indeed, on kitchen ware. My old chum Bert shambled by, looking sleepy, hair well oiled (both of us keen devotees of markets). He executed an about turn pretty near the exit, briefly stood framed in a doorway, crestfallen and seeming poleaxed by the crush. I left too, deciding I'd wait until the New Year sales and went home on the bus to Fowey, nettled that the market had failed to supply me with expected bargains. My spouse Vernon and my son Kenneth were unsympathetic; well, at least I'd have enough money on the next rent day.
