

From your Rector

First Sunday in Advent

Happy New Year !

I'm hoping that this week's letter finds you well? The news has come that we are to be placed in Tier 2 as we emerge from lockdown. This means that public worship can resume and we look forward to being able to do that from next weekend. We shall, of course, continue to livestream services for those at home. The Archdeacons will let us know on Wednesday of any further details regarding public worship and church life as we move through Advent and into Christmas.

Please do make the most of the journey through Advent. It is never a season to be rushed and I hope that all of us can deepen our prayer life. Another useful custom is to have a spiritual book to read... this might be a book that we've never read before or it might be the re-reading of a book that we've read previously. Whichever we choose, prayerful reading will give us fresh insights and allow God to speak to us and to guide us.

As we begin a new year in the life of the Church, may God's love surround us and may His blessing be upon us.

With my love and prayers and good wishes for the coming week

Your friend and Rector

Matthew Tregenza