4th Sunday of Lent (Mothering Sunday)

I hope this week's letter finds you well. This Sunday is the mid-point of our Lenten journey... as well as being Mothering Sunday of course!

Despite the Covid restrictions, we have been able to hold Lent study groups via Zoom and it has been good to see participation from across several Mission Communities. Although I have only been able to get to one session so far, I have really enjoyed being part of a group this year and sharing and learning with others.

Learning together will be one of the priorities of the emerging Hub and I hope that we will make the most of the opportunities to do that when they are offered. Working together across parish boundaries will enable us to support and encourage one another and allow God to work in exciting and unimaginable ways.

As we come to Mothering Sunday, let us give thanks for those who have loved us, nurtured us, and cared for us and let us ask God to show us the opportunities to nurture and care for others. Let us also take a moment or two to reflect on God's love for us and how we might show that love to others.

With my love and prayers and good wishes

Your friend and Rector
